

British Tamils Forum United Kingdom

06 June 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tamil people must exercise their voting right in the General Election on 8th of June 2017

British Tamils Forum urges the Tamil people in Britain to ensure that they exercise their voting right to choose their MP who will best represent their interest in the UK parliament.

Tamil People should support the candidates who will,

1. Recognise Tamil people's right to self-determination in the Island of Sri Lanka
2. Recognise the Genocide committed against Tamil people by the Sri Lankan state
3. Supports a time bound plan for the full implementation of UN Resolutions in Sri Lanka

Let us use our votes wisely to strengthen our voice in the UK parliament.
